

WORK IN

JobTransfer europe

TRANSITION

Aims Conditions
Pilot Projects

Case studies for company-related labour market policy

Small.
Family.
Businesses.

Special features of small family businesses and the consequences for company innovation processes

pragma

NRW.

CONTENTS

I	INTRODUCTION	5
	The economic and social importance of small family businesses	5
	Social and economic developments	8
	Special features of small family businesses	12
2	OBJECTIVES AND METHODS	14
2.1	Identification of interests and objectives	14
2.2	Methods	15
2.3	Profiles of the businesses under investigation	18
3	RESULTS	34
3.1	Small family businesses and the demands of modern economy	34

3.1.1	Keyword globalisation	35
	Focus globalisation	39
3.1.2	Keyword marketing	40
3.1.2.1	Market observation	40
	Focus market observation	46
3.1.2.1	Knowledge of competitors	47
	Focus knowledge of competitors	51
3.1.2.2	Knowledge of customers	52
	Focus knowledge of customers	56
	How do customer wishes change?	58
	Focus customers wishes	60
	Ecological material and production methods	61
	Focus ecology	64
3.1.2.3	Customer contacts	65
	Focus customer contacts	68
3.1.2.4	Advertising	69
	Focus advertising	77
3.1.3	Keyword technology	78
	Focus technology	84
3.1.4	Keyword controlling	86
	Focus controlling	90
3.1.5	Keyword Employees and management style	92
	Focus Employees	99

	Focus management style	109
3.2	Special features of small family businesses	111
3.2.1	Relationship family – business	111
3.2.2	Objectives of small family businesses	124
3.2.3	Employees of small family businesses	129
	Focus Employees	141
3.2.4	Résumé: special features, advantages and disadvantages of small family businesses	142
4	RÉSUMÉ AND OUTLOOK	147
4.1	Special features of small family businesses	148
4.2	Globalisation as a challenge	154
4.2.1	Support of small family businesses- but how?	158
	Investigation into the practice	160
	Consequences for consulting and support	161
5	LITERATURE	167